Order thereon.	....			13	24th.	Do.	Do.	2248
From the—. The postponement of the Jail delivery at Cuddapah, suggested by the Acting Judge is considered objectionable. To expedite the trial of the prisoners, the translation of the documents may be dispensed with, except in cases referred to the Foujdarry Adawlut; to prepare which, the establishment of the Judge on Circuit might be increased, and some of the papers might be translated at Madras. If the Jail delivery at Cuddapah cannot be completed soon enough to leave time for the sessions in the other Zillahs, a Regulation may be passed empowering the Governor in Council, under such circumstances to issue a special commission for the completion of the Jail deliveries.	20th. From the—. States the causes which render the police of his district inefficient vizt. 1. The vicinity of Travancore, into which the Southern Marawars make incursions and secrete their booty in Tinnevelly, before steps can be taken on the representation of the Resident to apprehend them. 2. The distance of the Criminal Court which causes complaints to be suppressed. 3. The number of poligars, who countenance thieves. 4. Apprehensions entertained of the caste of Marawars. To render the police more efficient, the Collector requests an increase to his establishment to the extent of Rupees 392–6–0 per mensem, and authority to introduce the preventive system adopted in Coimbetoor. The increased expense, he hopes, may be gradually reduced. He also suggests that persons committed as Vagrants should be declared liable to labor; that security should be required from them for good conduct, not for appearance only as now authorized; that the Foujdarry Adawlut's orders on	16th. TRANSLATORS TO GOVERNMENT.
From the Persian—. In translation of the Regulations it has been usual to correct any trifling mistakes in the originals, that partook of the nature of errors of the press. Being doubtful of the propriety of this practice, the Translator suggests that the errors in question should be corrected under orders from Government by the authorities to whom the Regulations have been furnished; or that he should be authorized to make his translations exactly conformable to the Originals. A few errors of this kind are pointed out.	25th.	October	1824	7	16th.	November	1824	1982
